IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM
WALTON: In loving memory of our dear brother, Walker Walton,
No morning dawns, no night returns
But that we think of you.
Those left behind are very dear,
But none replaces you.

We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our minds;
The days we do not think of you,
Are very hard to find.
—Lela Walton Harris,
His Sisters and Brothers.
(11p)

IN MEMORIAM
GARDNER: In sad and loving memory of our husband and Daddy, T. J. Gardner, who passed away six years ago today, Dec. 18, 1953.

The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair;
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile,
Of the one who once sat there.

What would we give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see;
To hear his voice and see his smile,
That meant so much to us.

His life is a beautiful memory,
His absence a silent grief;
He sleeps in God's beautiful garden,
In sunshine a perfect peace.

They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget;
But time so far has only proven,
How much we love and miss him yet.

Some day we hope to meet,
In that land so bright and fair;
For Jesus our blessed Savior invites us there.
In his beautiful home to share.
—Sadly missed by
Wife and Children.

Meal In A Hurry!

You can't have too many ideas for quick menus! So—here's one that's pre-cooked ham and canned "sweets" delicately flavored with Log Cabin Syrup. You will find this a perfect recipe for those unexpected guests"—it takes but minutes to prepare, and is economical), and chilled canned fruit cocktail over fruit sherbet. Serve with hot bakery cookies to top off this "quickest yet" menu!

Ham and Sweet Potato "Quickie"

Whole slices ham (1 inch thick) fully cooked boneless ham (or canned ham)
1 tablespoon butter
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 cup maple-blended syrup
1 can (18 ounces) sweet potatoes
1 cup drained canned sliced apples (optional)

Stick cloves into one side of each ham slice. Melt butter in a large heavy skillet. Blend in mustard and syrup. Cook 5 minutes over medium heat. Add potatoes and cook 5 minutes, turning occasionally. Add ham slices, clove sides down; then apples. Heat slices 5 minutes on each side. Baste apples and potatoes frequently. Arrange in serving dish. Makes 4 servings.

Holly Top Pie, Holiday Favorite

The delicious combination of flavors in Cherry Mince Pie will make it a holiday favorite with your family. Quick-cooking tapioca, a pie thickener supreme because it has no color or flavor of its own, helps keep the spicy-tart flavor while the pie bakes to perfection in a "holly-top crust." When you serve this pie, a few drops of the luscious syrup will run onto the serving plate. . .Because tapioca is a gentle thickener . . . while the fruits stay in the wedge of pastry.

Cherry Mince Pie

2 tablespoons Minute Tapioca
2 cups (17-ounce can) water-packed pitted red sour cherries*
½ to ½ cup sugar
1-½ cups moist mincemeat
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie

Combine tapioca, cherries and juice, sugar, and mincemeat. Roll half the pastry ½ inch thick. Line a 9-inch pie pan and trim pastry at edge of rim. Roll remaining pastry ⅛ inch thick and cut several 2-inch slits or a holly leaf design near center. Fill pie shell with fruit mixture. Moisten edge of bottom crust. To adjust top crust, fold pastry in half or roll loosely on rolling pin; center on filling. Open slits with a knife. (Well-opened slits are important to permit escape of steam during baking.) Trim top crust, letting it extend ½ inch over rim. To seal, press top and bottom crusts together on rim. Then fold edge of top crust under bottom crust and flute. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 55 minutes, or until syrup boils with heavy bubbles.

*If syrup-packed cherries are used, omit sugar.
